SCRIPT/NARRATION R: "Ok thank you guys again for coming to the weekly meeting. It's not going to take to long here so listen up. First thing on the agenda, guys we have to stop putting our trash on the street corner. Last week Ms. Hampshire was attacked by racoons while getting on the bus. So just throw your trash where it's supposed to go."	A: "OMG could you be any closer to me, give me some breathing room." J: "It's not a big deal just be quiet." A: "Just scoot over a bit so I can have some breathing room." J: "Fine it's not that big of a deal."	R: "And yes the coyotes are still a problem at the park guys, but we have somebody on that. Oh, yes?"

K: Maybe we could paint over the graffiti next to the laundromat. R: Do you mean the mural we had painted last spring? K: Yeah that's it. R: So just to be clear you want to paint over the 20,000 mural we had painted last spring. K: Yeah that sounds about right.		J: I haven't showered for one meeting and you're making a big deal out of it. A: One meeting! You haven't showered since the Great Depression!		C: Could you two just be quiet!

SCRIPT/NARRATION	J: You stay out of this. A: I bet people could smell you from China. I could smell you when you walked through the doorway.	R: Guys come on we still have 27 minutes.	R: Yeah you. C: I was thinking we could fundraise for a community shelter. R: Ok so we're going to need somebody to help with that. Yeah, no. I'll put that down as a maybe.
